

31 THINGS TO PRAY OVER YOUR CHILD THIS SCHOOL YEAR

1. That God would pick their teacher(s).
2. Physical protection against harm.
3. Any sin would be revealed throughout the year.
4. That God would put His word in their minds and hearts at the exact time it is needed.
5. God would choose their friendships, and that they would have a "Jonathan" friend that loves God to walk beside them this year.
6. That they would be kept from evil, and evil from getting to them.
7. That adult leader influence would be for good, and not harm.
8. God would develop interests and aptitudes that would be used for His purposes.
9. That they would hold their tongue from backtalk, gossip, and slander.
10. When they are lonely, that God would immediately remind them of Himself.
11. Their eyes would not see what is not intended for them or would harm them.
12. As a parent, that I would see needs that I have the power to meet, and do it without delay.
13. That their teachers would speak with kindness and instruction, without yelling.
14. They would be a friend to the lonely and a defender of the weak.
15. That weekends would be a time of rest.
16. That attitudes would be right each morning as we get ready for school.
17. They would be ready to share their testimony and point others to Christ.
18. That classwork and homework would be just the right amount for them to learn well.
19. Guard their thoughts against anything that would become strongholds.
20. When they are anxious, that God would give peace in each and every situation.
21. That they would bring friends into our home, and that they may come to know God or draw closer to Him.
22. Provide for the things needed during the school year, from supplies, to friendships, to transportation.
23. That they would develop deep friendships at church.
24. That they would enjoy their time at school.
25. Protect them from bullies and keep them from bullying others.
26. They would grow in their faith and knowledge of God.
27. That they would give forgiveness when hurt.
28. That they would give grace to their family and come to one another when they are hurt.
29. That God would guard Sunday mornings for church.
30. That God would give favor to their studies and extracurricular efforts.
31. Their bodies would grow in health, and no disease would overcome them.
